

WE NOMINATE

Juan Manuel Lopez, who some 30 years "out of college" has translated into actuality his deeply held belief that the "privilege of serving others is the highest reward life can hold." A fortnight ago Lopez—54 years old, a remarkable authority in the realm of books, a Naval Intelligence Officer in World War II—was ordained a priest in the Protestant Episcopal Church and promptly turned down an attractive offer from a New England parish in order to carry forward his present assignment as Vicar of the Mission of St. John's Church in Fords, N. J.

For 20 years manager of the Princeton University Store's General Book Department and a vestryman of Trinity Church at the time he volunteered for naval service in 1942, Lopez approached the priesthood slowly, as if motivated by some unseen powerful force. His wartime tour of duty, during which he added Portuguese to his ready command of Spanish and French, "sold him" on the importance and satisfactions of working with others. He consequently applied for a post-war position with the Veterans' Administration and in 1946 became "V.A. Contact Representative" here in Princeton. Shortly thereafter he was transferred to Washington as a "V.A. Liaison Officer" with the Department of State, concerned with problems of ex-GI's working and studying in all parts of the world.

Lopez, a native of Trenton and the grandson of the founder of Princeton's Marsh & Company, made the decision in 1949 and a tremendous step it was! In learning how to study all over again, something he hadn't done since his Lawrenceville School and Princeton University days, he entered the Columbia School of General Studies. In 1951—the day before he attended the 29th reunion of the Princeton Class of 1922—he received his Bachelor of Science degree. Another year as a student in the General Theological Seminary, New York, completed his preparations for the three-day canonical examinations of the Diocese of New Jersey.

In these hectic recent years Lopez, whose Princeton-trained father was active in the Cuban mission field for nearly a half-century, not only commuted between Valley Road and Manhattan but also held forth as Seminarian Assistant in the nearby Rocky Hill and Sand Hills Episcopalian parishes. Last summer, even while cramming for his appearance before the Board of Examining Chaplains, he was lauded for all that he did as a representative of New Jersey churches in administering to the needs of the 1,000-plus Puerto Rican migrant workers in this area. Early fall brought ordination as a deacon and the call to his 150-member Fords church.

For striving to reflect in whatever he undertakes the true spirit of Christianity; for possessing the courage to act upon his own convictions; for helping others understand that men "walk by faith, not by sight"; he is the Editors' nominee for

The Heat's On. Less than a month ago, Princeton was experiencing snow flurries. This week, the thermometer moved heatedly past the 80-degree mark. It was sufficiently warm to change many a daily habit but seemingly not quite hot enough to result in one finding alligators in one's garden.

Still and all, that was the report brought to a Cleveland Lane resident by her gardener, who had exhibit A to prove his case. The 'gator wasn't very big, but he was hardy. Seems he had been an Easter present to a family over on Library Place and had felt the urge to explore, something that hadn't been possible while he had been a resident of The Pet Shop. For the past six weeks, no one knew what had become of him, until the Florida-like temperatures brought him out of hiding.

Alligators in the garden . . . It may be a tough summer.

Tavern Robbed. Wednesday morning shortly after 4 a.m., an inkwell, an ashtray and a paper stapler sailed across the lobby of the Nassau Tavern. The target was a hooded bandit, armed with a .32 revolver; the unloaded ammunition was fired by night clerk Raymond Heckman, 59-year-old resident of Kingston.

Barking, "Give me your money," the robber vaulted the desk and struck Mr. Heckman on the head with the butt of his pistol before the latter escaped in search of help. Three shots from the revolver broke open the cash register. —Continued on Page 2

Donald Thompson, 144 John Street, the night bellhop, raced downstairs to telephone police, found himself without a nickel to insert in the pay telephone and ran all the way to Borough Hall to give the alarm.

Still Growing. The Princeton community, which has felt the effect throughout the post-war period of residential development, learned this week of two more. Symbolic of the area's steady growth as one of the East's most favored residential communities, they chart a trend which will soon raise estimates of the population served by the Princeton post office to 20,000.

On the 250-acre tract once known as the "June Murray Farm" a new corporation, Shipetaukin Country Farms, will build homes priced to sell upwards of $30,000. Professor Francis A. Comstock, a member of the Princeton University School of Architecture since 1925, is the architectural consultant; Louis Rakin, who maintains an office in his home, Shipetaukin Farm, will supervise the development.

The first home, located on a three and a half acre tract, is nearing completion and is open for inspection. The area to be developed stretches from Lawrenceville and Province Line Roads eastwards to the Delaware and Raritan Canal.

For much of the program planned by the corporation and other details of what it will offer, see the advertisement on page 13.

"Riverside," the 130-acre estate which has been in the Walter B. Howe family since Civil War days, will be developed as a residential site by the newly-formed Foster Investment Corporation. Its president is Walter B. Foster, who has been associated with the Howe real estate and insurance agency for 35 years; its secretary, Russell H. Servis, who has been with that agency for a quarter-century.

Initial plans call for construction of 55 homes, with preliminary engineering developments scheduled for completion by September. Eventually, the tract will be divided to accommodate some 300 homes, with the smallest site just under half an acre.

Plans call for construction this summer of a 70-foot wide street to serve as the entrance to the area, which lies between Nassau Street on the west and Lake Carnegie on the east. The Textile Research Institute property is the northern boundary, while the southern line is adjacent to land owned by the University, including the Harrison Street housing project.

Court Cases. Motor vehicle inspectors stopped scores of drivers on Bayard Lane and Stockton Street a fortnight ago. Last Tuesday, these Princetonians were among those fined for failing to have their licenses or registration in their possession:

C. McKim Norton, 87 Lafayette Road; Harland Hoisington, Jr., Carter Road; Joseph H. Barbano, 84 Jefferson Road; Albert Cornish, Stockton Road; Rives S. Matthews, 6 Mercer Street; James C. Griffin, 14 Washington Road; Anthony Jennings, 33 Springdale Road.

It's New to Us

The Sign of Pisces. You never know what they will make jewelry out of next: now it's fish scales. At The Town Shop, 12 Nassau, we saw a rose, pale, fragile and lovely and made entirely of fish scales tinted slightly with pink. The center of the rose, a fragment of coral.

Other pieces include earrings and dark glasses with a lavish border of fish scales and sea shells. There are barettes, too, and a big pin. Prices begin at $2.10 for the earrings and go on up the scale from there.

For town wear, there is white jewelry made of opaque beads, each with a tiny brass bead alongside, for safety's sake. We saw white bracelets with rhinestones winking here and there, clustered earrings, some with rhinestones, some without.

All of them would frost a dark town dress. Colored bead necklaces are translucent; they come in pinks and a sea-fog green.

For summer shorts or a summer skirt, here's a collection of wide white canvas belts. One has a parade of grasshoppers in single file from end to end, another takes you down the garden path with a row of vegetables. Others are plain in color - yellow or white. Each has a heavy brass clasp and a price tag that says about $5.

Somebody made a summer bag out of a wicker basket and decorated it to look like a little grass shack. Shell decor here, too, but no fish scales.

House of Wax. With the new floor which they have at The Wright Store, you can wipe out the insect life in your house and set up your own museum of defunct roaches, bugs and ants. Free-Wax (but it isn't; you pay $1.49 a quart) is a liquid self-polishing wax that is also an insecticide. Can you imagine anything better for kitchen, pantry or bathroom? Or for that house you will rent at the beach? Pick up a can at 130 Nassau.

Some insects are the outdoor type - athletes of the rose bush. For these fellows, there is Krylon, a garden spray confined in a pressurized can-like whipped cream and shag spray. It's not toxic, except to aphids and others of their ilk, so you can use it on house plants if you wish. A 12-ounce can is $1.89.

Plastic can do anything, it seems: dots of it can extend the life-span of a pair of work gloves. Pin-size globs of black plastic have been applied to the fabric of a pair of garden gloves, and the result is a product guaranteed to outwear two pairs of ordinary gloves. For 49¢ a pair.

If you're buying wedding presents, look at The Wright Store's automatic percolator. Holds eight cups, comes in red, blue, green ($13.95) or chrome ($18.95). Fully automatic, it will keep coffee hot after it has perked - even a bride can make a good cup with this.

No-See grass edger is a wavy steel band that you press into the ground at the edge of your lawn. You can't see it from the top but you can see the result of its presence; it keeps grass and roots from creeping and mowing a trim margin for your lawn. Mow over it and you automatically leave a neat edge behind. Forty feet for $4.95.

Some New Kit-Bags. But not to put up your troubles in. These are for fun, for vacation, for travel. You buy them at Artistic Hairdressers, 352 Nassau, in almost any - Continued on Page 14

Among the highlights of the occasion will be a number of recitals, choral and organ concerts to be held in Westminster Chapel; the festival play in the college Playhouse; and Mozart's "Requiem" to be presented in McCarter Theatre.

The latter event, with the orchestra and chorus under the baton of Nicholas Harsanyi, will take place Wednesday, May 27, at 8:30 p.m. On Friday night, Dr. John F. Williamson, college president, will conduct "The Westminster Choir Past, Present and Future" in McCarter.

HUMAN RELATIONS IN INDUSTRY

The modern view rates human relations as a top factor in worker productivity.

One of the most important influences in the industrial human relations field is a good, modern plant.

GROUP ARTS

has accomplished a great deal in its six years of life. It is the principal outlet for community self expression. It holds the annual exhibitions in Palmer Square. Marian Anderson and Dorothy Maynor sang here under its aegis. Twice a year it shows a series of motion picture classics. It conducts art workshops for children (toddlers) and adults.

It is Princeton's Community Art Center.

The fees for these workshops are deliberately lower than the cost to Group Arts. Otherwise, enrollment would not be possible for many of those who are interested. Scholarships are provided for many. Thus, like any other community service organizations, we ask the community to help support the work. Group Arts must have Princeton's support to carry out the ambitious program it has outlined for itself this year.

The college's 24th annual commencement exercises will take place Friday morning of that week in the University Chapel. Alumni will return for the occasion and for their annual luncheon and meeting that afternoon.

A majority of the events during the festival are open to the public, upon payment of a $2 registration fee which covers all of them. Full details and a schedule for the five-day program may be obtained in advance from the Choir College.

New PTA Officers. Mrs. Albert Van Zandt has succeeded Mrs. George F. Thomas as president of the Princeton High School PTA. During the latter's term in office, the association reached the record-breaking total of 1,000 members. Mrs. John E. Ruedy was the membership chairman.

Mrs. Van Zandt, a resident of Montgomery Township, where she has served on the board of education, will be assisted by Mrs. E. Harris Harbison, first vice-president; Mrs. Arthur Wengel, second vice-president; James A. Arnold, Jr., honorary vice-president; Mrs. William N. Smyth, treasurer; Mrs. C. Stanley Green, assistant treasurer; Mrs. Roderick Malcolm, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Philip T. Smith, recording secretary.

Teachers Dine. Professor Everett Wallis of the Department of Chemistry at Princeton University, was the speaker at the annual banquet of the Princeton Teachers Association held Wednesday at the Nassau Tavern. His topic was "Problems of Modern Germany." Members of the board of education and their respective wives and husbands were guests on the occasion.

Mrs. Harriet Peterson is president of the association. Other officers are Joseph Drulis, vice-president; Miss Louise Palmer, treasurer; Miss Mary Wilcox, secretary.

Trouble Spot. Renewed attention is called this week to a dangerous street intersection, which is not only heavily traveled but is graded in inverse ratio to the direction of its sweeping curve. The following letter points up a problem deserving of adequate attention:

This Article Should Be Read By Everyone Purchasing A New Car

The books say that ads should be short. Ads should have pictures. This ad is different. In exchange for a few minutes of your reading time, it will give you valuable information. So, if you intend to invest in a new car soon, it will be to your advantage to continue reading.

UNBIASED REPORTS ON 1953 CARS are now available. One of the most reliable, prepared by an organization with no special interests, nor advertising pressures, is well worth the 35-cent investment at the newsstand. (They buy their own cars for testing purposes, at retail.) It will be an eye opener, to you as an automobile owner, if you have never read such a survey. Without the inconvenience of shopping dealer show rooms, you can get accurate, non-technical and technical information on the 1953 automotive merchandise. You will get comparisons on makes, models, performance factors, riding qualities, power steering, automatic transmissions, trade-in values and many other factors. Such information has dollar and cents value, when you go to buy your new car.

TO GIVE YOU A FEW HIGHLIGHTS, one phase of the report is a study on "owner loyalty." In other words, does the car owner like his present car well enough to buy the same make again? DE SOTO V-8 stands at the top of the list. Some of the standings in this list will astound you.

WHEN IT COMES TO RATING CARS BY PRICE CLASS, the DE SOTO V-8 FIRE DOME again takes top rating. The comments and reasons for the ratings of the automobiles in this class will open the eyes of many prospective buyers.

WE URGE EVERY CAR OWNER to check reports such as this, before buying any car. Read the unbiased accounts of the good and bad points of the new cars. Then we invite every prospective buyer of a new automobile to come in and drive the new 1953 DE SOTO FIRE DOME V-8. A few minutes at the wheel, added to the words of the experts, will convince you that the DE SOTO is the best in its class—and the 1953 car for you.

WHY DON'T YOU join the thousands of owners who continue to buy DE SOTO year after year?

Miscellany. The borough still has rent control, Mayor Sturges reported this week, since the federal action extending such legislation to July 31 governs all municipalities which voted for six months' extension last September 30. No action was forthcoming at this week's meeting to move for municipal ownership of the Nassau Street parking lots. The ordinance will be introduced June 9, if not earlier at a special meeting.

Sons have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Theodore E. Cronk, Franklin and Tree-Ar Avenues; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Peck, Cherry Hill Road; Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Diadorli-Rocky Hill; daughters to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brown, 755 Patton Avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Kolbert, Skillman.

Registration for entrance to kindergarten in September will be held at St. Paul's School next Wednesday and Friday from 10 a. m. to noon. Parents should bring baptismal certificates, records of smallpox vaccination, diphtheria immunization and other pertinent health information.

Eleven-year old Thomas Bowers, son of Mrs. Ruth Bowers of 27 Linden Lane, is recovering from injuries suffered when he was struck last week by an automobile in front of his home. No charges were placed against the driver, Mrs. Helen Cayne of 116 Spruce Street.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Witherspoon Presbyterian Church will sponsor a turkey dinner Sunday from 1 to 4:30 in the parish house. Proceeds will help purchase a refrigerator for the church kitchen; reservations may be made through Mrs. Howard Waxwood, Jr. (2668-W).

Mary Ellen Assembly No. 51, Order of the Rainbow for Girls, will meet Monday at 7:30 p. m. at 352 Nassau Street. Miss Marie McKenzie will be installed as worthy adviser; Mrs. Ralph Holmes is mother adviser.

The Women's College Club will hold its annual business meeting Monday at 3:30 at the home of Mrs. Albert Elsasser, 128 Broadmead. Mrs. Elsasser, the hostess, will be assisted by Mrs. F. F. French, Mrs. Arthur Blue, Mrs. Elwood Godfrey, Mrs. J. Douglas Brown, Mrs. Warren Bliss, Mrs. Edward D'Arms and Mrs. Elmer Timby.

The Business Association will meet Monday at 7:30 for a buffet supper at the Nassau Tavern, followed by a business meeting at 8:30. A progress report on the parking lot petitions will be made, and new trustees will be nominated.

The Men's Association of the First Presbyterian Church will hold its final meeting of the spring Thursday, May 21, at 8 on the second floor of the church school. Refreshments will be served but the dinner has been cancelled because of the construction in progress.

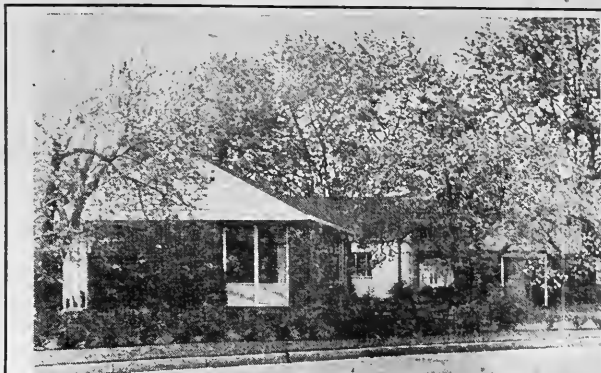

"Our Resources and Responsibilities as Protestant Laymen" is the subject for discussion. Tristram Johnson will serve as the chairman, Dean J. Douglas Brown as leader of the symposium; Raymond Bowers, Walter Johnson, David McAlpin and Arthur Wengel as panel members.

TOPICS OF THE TOWN

Five directors will be elected and other business transacted at the annual meeting of the Nassau Building and Loan Association. It will be held Tuesday at 5 at the First National Bank.

The Women's Auxiliary of Trinity Church will give a benefit garden party Friday, May 22, from 3 to 5 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Russell Butler, Jr., 91 Battle Road. The garden and its many varieties of flowers will be open to the public; the rain date is May 25.

Some 40 Princeton organizations have been advised by Mayor Sturges that County Prosecutor Mario Volpe has ordered a ban on all forms of gambling. This includes games of chance sponsored by non-profit organizations. Expectations are that a November referendum legalizing bingo will be held.

Mrs. Jerome Kurshan has been elected president of Princeton Hadassah for 1953-54. Serving with her will be Mrs. Thomas Stix, first vice-president; Mrs. Mortimer Feldman, second vice-president; Mrs. Melvin Gann, recording secretary; Mrs. Jacques Pankov, corresponding secretary; Mrs. David Epstein, treasurer.

Gallup & Robinson, advertising research firm with offices at 53 Bank Street, has distributed a profit-sharing bonus to all its employees. Slightly larger than last year's, it amounted to the equivalent of five to six weeks' pay for every employee who has been with the company for the past 12 months. Those with the company for a shorter time received smaller amounts; altogether 40 persons participated in the profit-sharing.

The Italian-American Sportsmen's Club will hold its third annual banquet Sunday at 6 p. m. at Fowler's Restaurant, U. S. Route 1. Members may obtain tickets through the committee chairman, Bernard De Vido; Joseph Baldino, John Pirone and D. Don Richards.

Six in a Row. Princeton High School's track team completely dominated the Mercer County Championships held in Trenton Tuesday night, winning the title for the sixth year in a row. The Blue and White entry, coached by Irwin Weiss, outscored four other schools combined: PHS 72½, Trenton High, 43½; Hightstown, 10; Trenton Catholic, 7½; Hamilton, 6½.

Jim Varner, co-captain of the Little Tigers, was voted the meet's outstanding performer and was awarded a trophy in recognition of his performance. At one stage of the affair, he had broken three meet records, but only the 20.5 time he recorded in winning the low hurdles stood up.

Carl Brown topped his time in the high hurdles, taking that event in a fine 15.2, and a Hightstown contestant bettered Varner's best effort in the broad jump. Varner's and Brown's times are now PHS records.

Al Terry was the high scorer, winning the 220-yard dash and placing second in the 100 and the javelin. Larry Fitzgerald, co-captain with Varner, racked up the only double, taking the javelin and the discus, as well as tying for third in the high jump. Other Princeton winners were Bob Rosner, shot put, and Doug Wengel, mile.

A junior high quartet from Princeton finished second in a field of eight in a 440-yard relay. Running for the Blue and White were Ran Taylor, Don Johnson, Win Niles, Jr. and Dick Hall.

Last Saturday saw the Blue and White give several outstanding performances in the Long Branch Relays, where it won state titles in the 440 and 880-yard events and took the Central Jersey title in the 480-yard hurdles relay. Victory in the latter event (achieved by Allen Graham, Garland Gillette, Varner and Brown) set a school record of 1:06.5.

The Englewood Invitation meet this Saturday will draw a Princeton contingent in several events. The next dual meet is set for Wednesday against Somerville on the latter's track.

PHS Nine Splits. Princeton High School's baseball team topped the Hun nine for the second time this season on Tuesday, 10-5. The Red and Black started fast on first-inning tallies by Pat Tidey and Russ Summers but the victors knotted the count in their half of the round.

From a 4-4 tie in the fourth, Coach Morrill Shepard's team moved steadily ahead, Pete Johnson and Rudy Rudemann bringing two runs across and the Little Tigers taking their fourth this season without difficulty behind Bob Montgomery. Last Friday's game with Long Branch went to the shore team, 10-6.

Hun is now 1-9, having been beaten Saturday by Rutgers Prep, 3-2. Pat Tidey was the loser in both games, but was the victim of unearned runs in the contest last weekend.

Vic Perone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Perone of 27 Ewing Street, will captain the Hun School football team next fall. An end on the team, Vic also plays basketball and baseball for the Red and Black.

Softball Starts. The Eagles Community Softball season opened this week with three circuits (American, National and the Girls League) swinging into action. Monday night saw these results: Gallup & Robinson 14, Ex-Stars 5; Sportsmen's Club 9, Teague's Stars 4; Cousins 10, Eagles 2.

News of the Theatres

Strawhat Trail. In a mere three weeks the summer stock season will be underway and Princetonians will have a wide variety of theatre fare to choose from, including Shakespeare, perennial comedy favorites, recent plays, several premieres, operettas and musical comedies.

Following is a brief listing of the proposed offerings of the University Players (at Murray Theatre), the Bucks County Playhouse (New Hope) and the Music Circus (just outside Lambertville). Complete schedules and casts will be reported as they are announced, along with full ticket information next week.

MURRAY THEATRE

The new University Players group will open up on Monday, June 22, in Murray Theatre which will be air cooled. Producer Charles H. Schultz expects to start with "The Tempest," but a break on releasing might see a Noel Coward comedy as the first offering.

The six-week season will definitely include a night of one-acters and the French farce "An Italian Straw Hat." Depending on the casting to be completed this week, the remaining weeks will be chosen from among works by Shaw, Chekov, Molnar, Tennessee Williams, Saroyan and others.

BUCKS COUNTY PLAYHOUSE

"Mr. Roberts," the vastly successful Broadway comedy hit, will open the season at the Bucks County Playhouse in New Hope on Friday, June 5. The opening will mark Theron Bamberger's 13th season of summer stock at the picturesque playhouse.

Other plays to follow include "The Country Girl," "Voice of the Turtle," "Goodbye Again," "The Happy Time," "Glad Tidings," "Old Acquaintance," "Our Town" and "The Little Foxes." Others will be added to the list shortly.

MUSIC CIRCUS

St. John Terrell's musical theatre-in-the-round will also open on Friday, June 5, with the familiar operetta "Sweethearts." A 16-week season is planned at the ingenious entertainment tent, just outside Lambertville.

A sampling of future offerings includes "Panama Hattie," "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes," "Song of Norway," "Showboat," "Die Fledermaus," "A Tree Grows in Brooklyn," "Call Me Madam" and "High Button Shoes." Offenbach's "Orpheus in the Underworld" with a new book and lyrics by the late Ring Lardner will be premiered the week of August 18-23.

Personal

to the man who can afford a better home

Have you yearned for a home designed for you . . . for comfortable country living . . . for a home in a beautiful rural area, yet handy to everything and everywhere? Have you looked, then ended up still yearning . . . and feeling that this generation of builders has simply ignored you? . . . Then pull up a chair and let's talk things over . . .

About 2 miles west of the University, at the Lawrenceville-Princeton Road (Route No. 206), corner of Province Line Road, is the old June Murray Farm . . . about 250 acres of enchanting country land. We are dividing this farm into a small number of modest country estates where you can arrange to build your home or we will be glad to build it for you.

Our program is purposefully flexible so that we do not "develop into a development" . . . Every precaution is being taken to insure the maintenance of the present rural character of the area. . . . We have evolved a program which permits you—searching for a better homesite—to choose not only the location of your home, but also the plans and the builder.

Come around and select your home from our portfolio of plans. They can be revised to suit you. We will give a firm price for the land and building. Or you can purchase the plot and select your own architect and builder. We will be happy if you select us to do the building . . . but that is not important, since there are other good builders in town.

Perhaps you are not ready to build at this time? Don't you think it might be a good idea to buy the land now, while there is plenty to choose from?

Incidentally, all homes not planned under our supervision must be approved by us . . . this is to protect our country spot from becoming the victim of an "architectural holiday."

To get a good idea of the calibre of work we do and the home-styling you may expect, why not drop around and look over the one story house we are building at the corner of Lawrenceville Road and Province Line Road? Space does not permit adequate description. The bare statistics are 7 rooms plus breakfast room, two baths, large basement, large two-car garage, plenty of closet space, more than three acres of ground.

The writer's office is across the road at Shipetaukin Farm. The phone number is Princeton 1-4417.

Sincerely yours,

IT'S NEW TO US

largest is entirely plastic (light in style, color and price. One of the weight, you see.)

It has a zip case for underwear, a special pocket for cleansing tissue, plus two plastic jars, two bottles, a soap dish, toothbrush holder and a cologne atomizer. All for $6.95.

Not many coat-hangers in European hotels, they tell us. A plaid tuffeta bag will help you out by providing a folding plastic hanger, and four clothespins on hooks. Bottle of soap-flakes, too. With extra space for your own toiletries, this is a lot for $4.95.

An unfitted waterproof bag includes, among its many pockets, a zip outside pocket. The top zips, too, and the bag has handles. Price is $3.50. A tiny bargain—$2 for a pale blue check zip bag with four plastic containers. What looks like a gold evening pouch turns out to be a bag with plastic brush, comb and clothes brush. All for $2.75.

On the display case at Artistic, you'll find some rare items: real tortoise shell combs, made with that no-slip arrangement in the teeth. They come from Switzerland, and one pair is $1.50.

No Plasma Required. No first-aid needed if you drop the new shock-proof watch at The Watch Shop, 20 Nassau. It's completely resistant to shock. Resistant isn't quite the word, however; "resilient" might be better because the watch is made with balance staff and 17 jewels set into a flexible arm device that acts like the knee-action of a car. This cushions the watch against jars and shocks.

You think of shock-proof watches as men's watches, but this sounds like a good women's watch to us. Think of the times you take off a watch to wash vegetables, dishes, or the baby, and how often a small careless arm will sweep the watch to the floor. Yes, it's housewives who are rough on time. Price for this Gothic is $39.75. Men's styles slightly more.

If He's Hot Under the Collar... buy him a Palm Beach tie, frosted with rayon, easy to wash. In addition to the striped ties of last year, there are figured ties, like a paisley with widely-spaced flowers, garden-cool for summer. You'll find them at Morris Men's Shop, 30 Witherspoon.

Beau Brummel ties feature a light, quiet ground with a single group of figures in the center: two small diamonds perhaps, or something that looks like a compressed graph. The simplicity of these ties makes them look fresh for warm weather.

All kinds of sports shirts in this shop—we liked a plain white polo with one wide stripe around its chest. Another has a navy collar and yoke on white. There are pull-overs, basques, knits—including a new model with short knit sleeves on a body and collar of linen. For $5.95.

Prices from $1.95 to $3.50 on other shirts. Better heed all this, lest Father's Day slip through your fingers.

Home Is the Hunter. A table lamp based on a mallard duck, wrought in heavy metal, will be a pleasant reminder of hunting days, if you have a duck-hunter for a husband. These ducks at Wine and Game, 6 Nassau, are bronze or silver finish with spread wings and detailed markings, down to the last pin-feather.

One shade has ducks painted on it, the other is a plain fabric shade lined with green. Each one is $24.95.

An early American room could use a table lamp whose base is a glass case. Inside the case is a soldier and cannon from Haslet's Delaware Regiment of '76—figure about three inches high. The lamp's shade is plain black trimmed in gold, and the lamp base is black, too.

Some new high-ball and old-fashioned glasses are decorated with trout flies. Another set of high-ball glasses has a golfer painted on the side and a silver rim around the top. Fine for prizes. There's a golfer's ashtray, too, in heavy cream-colored pottery with gold band. For $3.95.

Sports in Princeton

Able Lightweight. Just a year ago on Lake Carnegie, Princetonians watching the Eastern 150-lb. championships noted with considerable satisfaction that the Orange and Black's freshman crew was clocked in its morning heat in better time than the Pennsylvania varsity. In the finals, the 1955 shell was a scant second off the Quakers' winning time; the latter had dominated the lightweight scene for two years and went on to retain their Henley championship in England.

At the beginning of the present season, five members of the '55 squad (whose record last year was 12-0) won varsity berths as sophomores. They began with a six-length victory over Columbia and followed with a solid triumph over Harvard and Yale to take the Gold-thwait Cup.

Last Saturday on the Schuylkill River at Philadelphia, the 'fifties trimmed Penn by two and a half lengths, ending a streak of 24 straight victories for the Red and Blue. One account of the race said the result "stunned rowing circles," but Princetonians who had been on the banks of Carnegie last Spring had seen it coming a whole year away.

For Other Sports

This Saturday, the Tiger lightweight goes after the Eastern title that Penn hopes to claim for a third straight year. Off their performance last weekend, they will be favored to trim the Quakers again. Other opposition will come from Columbia, Cornell, Dartmouth, M.I.T., Harvard and Yale.

Freshman, junior varsity and varsity championships will be staged, with the first morning heat set for 9:40. The finals will be staged at 4, 4:20 and 4:40; all races will cover the traditional Henley distance of 1 1/2 miles.

Heavyweights on the Potomac. For the first time, the heavyweight crews will hold their Eastern sprint championships on the Potomac River at Washington. Beaten last week by Cornell by open water (but finishing ahead of Yale), Princeton will battle the powerful Ithacans for the runner-up spot to highly favored Navy.

No one is likely to trim the middies, although over the shoot 2,000-meter distance, form is more difficult to predict. The Navy is favored, with unbeaten Cornell, a rapidly improving Harvard crew and Princeton the primary challengers. In the freshman battle, the Tigers stand a good chance, although Cornell took their measure on the Housatonic last week after they had trimmed Penn, Columbia and the Navy Plebes.

Tennis Streak Ends. While the 150-lb. crew was ending Penn's streak, a Princeton string of victories was also being cut short at 41. North Carolina's strong tennis team, thumped Princeton, 6 1/2 to 2 1/2, inflicting the first defeat on the Tigers since May, 1949.

However, Coach John Conroy's forces took Harvard on Friday and if they get by Yale and Dartmouth this week, will have their fourth straight Eastern title wrapped up. No team has achieved that before.

Emery Blanks Yale. A pair of bunts laid down with two strikes on the batter raised all kinds of hob with the Yale baseball team at New Haven Saturday. The first one came with a 3-2 count and the bases filled; when the second baseman forgot to cover first and the pitcher forgot that you don't throw to a wide open bag, the ball sailed down the right field foul line and three runs crossed the plate.

That gave the Princetonians a 3-0 margin as early as the second round, and Dick Emery protected it fully though shakily. He walked 11 batters and hit another, but threw such an amazing assortment of pitches that the Blue could tag him for only a lone single. Two insurance runs in the ninth made it a 5-0 victory, the second straight shutout (and second one-hitter) that Princeton has racked up over the Bulldogs on their own field. Dave Sisler threw last year's.

Collecting only three safeties themselves, the victors bunted seven times. Two of the sacrifices brought in runs and all told, they drew five Yale errors—every one a wild throw. Princeton, meantime, was backing up Emery with errorless ball and a dozen Yale runners' nine in the first four innings—were left stranded.

Going into Wednesday's game against league-leading Penn, Eddie Donovan's entry was in second place. Saturday calls for a trip to Hanover to play Dartmouth; Monday will find the Orange and Black at Ithaca for the game against Cornell that was snowed out on April 18. Wednesday calls for a non-league test against Fordham on University Field at 4.

Track Team Beaten. The track team's hopes for a perfect record went awry at Ithaca, as they had here a year ago at Cornell's hands. The 7-1 record of 1952 was marred only by loss in the meet with the Red, while last Saturday's venture to the hills above Cayuga cost a 77-63 setback.

Len Lyons threw the shot 50 feet, 8 1/2 inches for a meet record, and Toby Maxwell scored a double in the mile and two mile. Otherwise, the Tigers largely played second fiddle to the home forces, who won six of the nine track events.

Princeton will not, incidentally, meet the invading Oxford-Cambridge team this year. The Tigers and Harvard found themselves unable to put up a guarantee to cover the Britishers' traveling expenses, and have been replaced by Army and Pennsylvania. These two, Cornell and Yale will engage in a triangular meet at New Haven on June 13.

Army Ahead. Princeton's lacrosse team heads for West Point Saturday with the knowledge that it may trim Army and still not win the national title. The cadets are unbeaten in eight starts and have played one more class A team than the Tigers, who have lost to Johns Hopkins.

However, if Ferris Thomson's able stickwielders can knock off the cadets, and Navy can repeat the trick on May 23, Princeton is in. The Tigers whacked Yale at New Haven, last Saturday, 11-1-6, as Bo Willis threw five goals into the Blue cage. The Bulldogs lost won from Princeton in this sport in 1932.

Short Notes. Princeton won the Metropolitan Intercollegiate Golf title last week for the third year in a row, leading Rutgers by 21 strokes, with the four-man teams of eight other colleges trailing. On Saturday, the Tigers finished third in a 14-college field in the Eastern Intercollegiate, played over the Springfield Course.

The title went to Yale (599); Penn State was second with 601, Princeton third at 603 and Virginia, the defending champion, fourth at 615. Three Princetonians (Bill Tryon, Phil Hughes and Augie Johnson) were among the 16 players qualifying for the individual title but all were eliminated in the quarterfinals.

Hun School's crew rowed and lost on the Potomac Saturday, finishing three lengths behind Washington and Lee High School. George Washington High was second over the mile course; the winning time was 4:35. A Hun four-oared shell with cox will row on the Harlem Saturday against the New York Institute for the Blind (steered by a cox with normal eyesight.)

Rosalind Russell plays a Washington cocktail party hostess who tries to trifle at being a Wac. Assisted by Marie Wilson and Paul Douglas, the wonderful Miss Russell generates some good amusement, if women's service comedies are your dish.
Man on a Tightrope (Sun.-Tues.) is a suspense melodrama about the attempts of an old-time Czech circus troupe attempting to escape from behind the iron curtain. Elia Kazan's direction does much to make a telling story and depiction of people cowed by a police state.
Frederick March, Terry Moore,
Gloria Grahame and Cameron Mitchell head the cast, and the outdoor shots filmed in Bavaria add to the realism.
By the Light of the Silvery Moon (Wed.-Sat.) follows the unassum-ing formula of its direct predecessor,
"On Moonlight Bay." Same Booth Tarkington small-town characters. Same Doris Day and Gordon McRae crowning old favorites.
Same sentimental corn. Technicolor, of course.

THE GARDEN
The Stars Are Singing (Fri.-Sat.)
features the talents of Rosemarie Clooney, Lauritz Melchior and Anna Maria Alberghetti in a typical lightweight show biz plot, repeatedly interrupted by musical numbers. Many of them are quite attractive, as is the personality of Miss Clooney.
On the Riviera (Mon.-Tues.) is one of Danny Kaye's lively successes (vintage '51) in the bright songs, patter and dance vein. Gene Tierney and Corinne Calvet also star. Technicolor, Monte Carlo setting.
Tight Little Island (Wed.-Thurs.)
sparkles as a completely delightful British comedy of about four years ago, dealing with an island-full of thirsty Scots and a cargo of whiskey they salvage. Filmed in the Hebrides, with Basil Radford, Bruce Seton and Joan Greenwood.
Desert Legion (Fri.-Sat.) is elaborate, mildly interesting and absolutely standard stuff about Legion-naire (Alan Ladd) who finds adventure and a beautiful princess (Arlene Dahl) in fabulous mountain kingdom. Richard Conte as the villain and a number of dancing girls are also featured. Technicolor.

Music Notes. The Princeton University Orchestra will give a concert this Sunday at 8:30 p.m. in Alexander Hall under the sponsorship of the Friends of Music at Princeton. No tickets are required.
Russell Ames Cook will conduct a program which includes the Overture to "Il Matrimonio Segreto" by Cimaroso and Mozart's Concerto for Bassoon and Orchestra, K. 191, with John S. Kitts '53 as soloist.
The second half will include Beethoven's Concerto No. 4 for Piano and Orchestra, Op. 58, with Manfred Clynes as soloist, and Aaron Copland's Suite from the ballet
"Appalachian Spring."

Arthur Mendel, now the head of the University's music department, will conduct his final concert with The Cantata Singers this Thursday at 7:45 p.m. at St. Michael's Church in New York. Resigning after 17 years at the head of the noted performers of Baroque sacred choral works, Mr. Mendel will conduct Bach's B minor Mass.

Pay For Your Heat
The Easy Budget Way

Most families handle household expenses on some sort of budget system — but fuel bills usually don't fit very well into a system . . . Because weather varies, it is hard to know how much a bill will be for any single month. And LARGE bills hit the budget during the midwinter months when the weather is coldest.

The Better Way

We recommend that you pay for oil with our Easy-Budget Plan. It works this way: The amount of oil you will burn in the next heating season is estimated in advance. Next, we multiply this amount by the estimated average price of oil for the next season. Then we divide the total into equal payments which you pay at the same time each month, throughout the heating season year.

Costs Nothing Extra

There is NO INTEREST, NO EXTRA CHARGE of any kind for the Easy-Budget Plan. For the oil you use you will pay the price in effect at time of delivery, just as you now do.
You will receive a meter ticket with each delivery showing the gallons delivered and the price per gallon. But payments will be more convenient to make.

More and more families are paying for their oil in this more practical way. If the plan sounds good to you, please let us know and we will gladly put it into effect for you.
